

F is for flamingo or Flaming "O" as our recently departed Brit friend Fred Bentley would say...but it is also for Fiesta and Fiesta means Trailer Trash...so pack your bags and watch your e-mail for the registration form for the 2018 Trailer Trash Zaf. This year you can make your calendar for April 27-29, 2018.

There may be a few surprises in there but count on doing something Friday night to help jump-start the weekend. Saturday morning you need to don your Pirate finest and gather downtown in the old King William area for the King William Fair Parade. Some local breakfast tacos are expected to once again fortify our group. San Antonio's Pirate ship "Orza" will make one more sail in the parade and we will hand out our Mardi Gras beads and entertain those along the parade route. Afterwards, we will stop at local "establishment" for food and refreshment.

The rest of the day will allow you to tour and travel as you wish or rest-up for the nighttime Trailer Trash Party at Craig and Cheryl Wright's big barn. Live entertainment is planned as usual along in ample food and adult beverage.

Sunday morning will greet all with our Adios Breakfast to prepare you for your trip home or an extended San Antonio stay. For those who can stay, join us in the beautiful Texas hill country for an afternoon at Brother Bob Wills' hilltop ranch in Bandera, Texas.

Mark your calendars for Trailer Trash, one of the Brotherhood premier events, April 28-30, 2017. Be there or be...a flamingo.
